

Your meeting is calling.

Give attendees a convenient and toll-free way to join by phone.

The days of dialing in with access codes and audio PINs are over. With Call Me for GoToMeeting, you can join a meeting by simply picking up the phone. And best of all, it can save your attendees time, hassle and cost.

It's easy. In a meeting, choose Phone Call and open the Call Me tab. Then enter your number and click Call Me. When your phone rings, answer it to instantly join the audio session. You can also save your number to connect even faster next time.

Call Me is an optional feature for all GoToMeeting plans provided by OpenVoice, available in 8 countries: US, Canada, UK, Germany, France, India, Singapore and Costa Rica. You get both toll-free audio and Call Me for the same rate – beginning at $.08/min per attendee. Have OpenVoice Integrated already? You can enable Call Me at your regular rate for no additional cost.

Need to meet fast?

Call Me helps the entire team join a session in seconds.

Want more convenience?

Everyone simply answers the phone – no codes or PINs needed.

Ready to make a great impression?

Toll-free calling lets you cover the cost for your attendees.

Looking to save?

There are no added fees. Pay only for what you use with rates beginning at $.08/min per attendee.
